

Assistant Junior Coach Course

The Assistant Junior Coach Course is a progressive Education, Training and Assessment course. It is designed for Secondary School, Polytechnic, University and School of Education Students, Teachers and part-time coaches who are contemplating a career in tennis coaching.

What Does The Course Cover?

The course covers a vast range of topics such as; basic tennis strokes, the business of coaching, diagnosis and correction, coaching athletes with disabilities, games based approach to coaching, feeding skills, fundamental drilling, basic strategy and tactics, lesson planning and group organisation, child learning styles.

To enrol please Contact:

Hamish Cain,

Phone: 389 6484 x 229

Email: hamish.cain@canterburytennis.co.nz

Course Information

Dates: 23, 24, 25 July
& 14, 15 August.

Time: 9am – 4pm
(BYO lunch)

Where: Wilding Park,
Christchurch

Cost: $650 per person
(includes all course
Materials)

Want To Know More?

A compulsory 3-day course is followed by a 2-day workshop combining theoretical and practical learning as well as online units and practical units in preparation for a final assessment. Please note: places are limited and you must register before 19th July 2010.